Supplier Diversity Program

Our Supplier Diversity Program provides qualified, certified small and diverse businesses with opportunities to become a preferred vendor for Thermo Fisher Scientific. Diversity and inclusion (D&I) is ingrained in our culture, and we are committed to ensuring that we embed it in all of our business practices. One way we accomplish this is through actively working to build and maintain relationships with qualified small and veteran-, minority-, LGBT-, disabled- and women-owned businesses.

Message from our leadership

“Our mission is to enable our customers to make the world healthier, cleaner and safer. To achieve their goals in today’s environment, our customers need to be more innovative and more productive, and they turn to Thermo Fisher Scientific for help. Having a diverse supplier base is important to our customers, to us and to the communities in which we do business. Our support of supplier diversity demonstrates our commitment to being a good steward in our communities and to ensuring our customers’ success.”

—Marc Casper, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Thermo Fisher Scientific
